Inspired by the art of Piet Mondrian, a master of geometric abstraction, Casa Santa Amaro houses combine balance of shapes and harmony of colors, creating a living space that is as aesthetic as it is functional. They differ in their singular architecture, while blending harmoniously into this quiet area and yet so close to the center of the Portuguese capital. If you are looking for a new, original, well-appointed property with a completely incredible view, Casa Santa Amaro may be the RARE PEARL
